

7) You try to explain that your partner's bid was the cause of missing game but no, she won't have it. Your opponents take your partner's side too. Why was it partner's fault actually ?

(partner)	(you)
4	A98
87	A32
AKQJ1054	32
432	J10765

3D -----Pass.

8) Again partner explains to everyone that will listen that you {yes you!} just won't bid high enough -that you keep underbidding. You keep your own counsel but resolve to look for a new partner. Whose fault was it this time ?

(partner)	(you)
AQ43	76
K32	AQ987
AKQ6	J54
Q2	543

2NT -----3H
Pass.

Try this hand in 3NT -no need to worry about the rule of eleven as an Honour has been led. So, the K Hrts is led, how do you intend to play ? Do you :

- i) win the lead and lead a diamond
- ii) duck the lead and then subsequently lead a diamond
- iii) win the lead and lead a spade
- iv) duck the lead and then subsequently lead a diamond

9) (declarer)	(dummy)
654	AQJ3
A2	10987
KQJ3	109
AQ43	KJ2

10) Partner { a new partner} has been on form all day and you are keen not to let her down. On defence against 4Sp partner leads the 8 Hrts. How do you intend to play ?

	{dummy }
	AQ54
	KQJ	{ you }
8 Hrts led ----->	987	K32
	K43	A932
		K65
		982

