

Partner opens 1H and your responding hands are given below.

What is your initial response on each of the hands?

Perhaps you better give a reason for your choice.

7) AQ762	8) AQ876	9) AQ87	10) AQ98
K854	AK54	QJ87	AQ87
65	K4	3	Q8
43	43	A543	543

You are in 3NT and the lead is the 7 spades. Actually , assuming the lead is standard, the contract is cold. How do you know that 9 tricks are there for the taking ?

11) {declarer}	{ dummy}
103	AQ8
AKQJ	543
765	AK32
8432	K76

You are on lead against 4Sp and try the K Hrts .

That seems to work well and the K Hrts wins { partner plays the 6 and declarer the 5}.

What suit and which card should you lead next and why ?

12)	{ dummy}
	AQ87
{you}	432
432	432
KQ9	K54
QJ9
Q982

You are the declarer in 4Hrts and the lead is the K sp.

Can you recall a clever ploy that might help to bring home the contract?

13)	{ declarer}	{ dummy }
	AJ8	432
	KQJ9	A765
	543	A62
	AK2	Q98

14) Your right hand opponent opens 1NT and you hold :-

2-----A43 -----43 -----AKQJ987

Overcalling 2 or 3 Clubs seems reasonable but then you start to think, perhaps there might be a more rewarding bid. What ?
